

The NDAFP Announces

Robert C. Wells, MD Clinical and Educational Research Poster Competition

NDAFP Annual Meeting in November

$500 prize to winner

Eligibility

- 1) Membership in NDAFP for the primary or secondary author
- 2) Original clinical or educational research completed in the past 2 years

Topics accepted in areas of:

- Quality improvement
- Teaching efficacy
- Clinical patient care
- Burnout prevention and resiliency

*No basic science “bench” research

- 3) Research conducted by:

- an NDAFP Physician member
- an NDAFP Resident member
- a Medical student attending the UND SMHS

Submission deadline

Poster files must be submitted by Oct 31st, and then presented at the NDAFP annual meeting

Judging to be done by

- Faculty members from all Family Medicine residencies in ND
- NDAFP board members